Special Rules
Anti-tank Platoon, Royal Artillery (1st Army) - p.183 British Portee anti-tank guns use the Tip and Run special rule on page 246 of the rulebook.
Royal Horse Artillery Battery (1st Army) - p.185 Although a Field Battery, Royal Artillery, Field Battery (SP), Royal Artillery, Royal Horse Artillery Battery, or Medium Battery, Royal Artillery is a single Support choice, each Gun Troop operates as a separate platoon with its own Command team. The Staff team of the HQ Troop must be attached to a Gun Troop from its own battery at the start of the game before deployment (see the British Artillery special rules on page 248 of the rulebook). Royal Horse Artillery Batteries are Horse Artillery Platoons (see page 118 of the rulebook). Royal Horse Artillery Batteries may not use the Combined Bombardment and Mike Target special rules (see page 248 of the rulebook).
Scout Platoon (1st Army) - p.168 Scout Patrols are Reconnaissance Platoons. Scout Patrols operate as seperate platoons, each with their own command team. Although its patrols operate as separate platoons for all other purposes, a Scout Platoon deploys all at the same time as a single platoon. For example, this means that you treat the entire Scout Platoon as a single platoon when calculating the number of platoons held in Ambush or Reserve.
Tank Platoon (with Lee or Stuart tanks) - p.237 Don't forget that your M3 Lee tanks can fire both their 75mm main gun and the 37mm turret gun at the same time using the Multiple Weapons rule on page 85 of the rulebook.
